Focus On: English for Kids

"English for Kids" is a phrase you are probably very accustomed to seeing and hearing in conjunction with short-term missions in the OPC, but do you know what it means?

French-speaking families in Quebec actively seek opportunities for their children to learn to speak English at an early age. St-Marc's Reformed Church has specifically targeted this demographic with its "English for Kids" and "English for Teens" camps. This summer marks the 13th year that these popular, Bible-centered, English-immersion camps have been organized and promoted by St-Marc's, where OP Missionary Ben Westerveld serves as Pastor.

Teams from Reformed churches in Canada and the US lead the kids camps. All activities are conducted in English. Local bilingual volunteers serve as liaisons and send the children home with French translations of the Bible lessons. The camps end with an event to which family and friends are invited, and the church follows up with families afterwards. The teen camp provides opportunities to practice English, study the Bible, and enjoy traditional camping activities like fishing, canoeing, and campfires!

There are openings to help lead the kids and teens camps in 2017. See “Current Opportunities.”

Thirty Years of Ministry in Key West!

August 2016 marked 30 years since OP Pastor Bill Welzien began his open-air easel evangelism at Mallory Square in Key West! Visit the Keys Evangelistic Ministries website at Keys-Christian.org and click on “Quarterly Newsletter” to read an inspiring anniversary message from Bill, “Glancing Back and Forward.”
